Hi Mark,

Thank you for completing GLG's Council Member Tutorial and for signing GLG's current Terms and Conditions of Council Membership.

Reminder: It is important that you are always aware of and abide by the Terms and Conditions of Council Membership.

Here are a few key points to keep in mind as you engage with GLG:

- You may accept or decline any project invitation for any reason;
- If you believe a client is soliciting confidential information or is otherwise asking you to act in a manner that is inconsistent with your obligations (whether to GLG, its clients, or any third party) you should decline to answer and contact GLG right away. If you need to cut the call short because of such concerns, let us know and we will still pay you for the full scheduled time;
- Honor your employment agreements and employer policies, including policies regarding outside consulting work. Further, be mindful of any obligations you owe to third parties. It is of the utmost importance that you act in accordance with your obligations to third parties (e.g., employers, former employers, entities you have consulted for);
- If you're unsure of your ability to participate in a project or in the GLG Councils because of your obligations, please check with the relevant entity in advance; and
- If you are employed by a company, you may not consult on your company.

A copy of these Terms and Conditions is available here for your reference:

Please save this link or download a copy of the Terms and Conditions for your records. Our goal is to help ensure you have interesting and comfortable conversations with GLG clients. If there is anything else we can do to further that goal, please let us know.

Best,
